

Holmes take reins of LGH foundation

Heather Holmes (left) is pictured here with LGH Foundation board chair Bernie Marcotte at a recent luncheon celebrating her being named to the top job at the foundation, which raises funds for the hospital. Chronicle photo courtesy Lakeshore General Hospital Foundation

Former Amcal Family Services executive director Heather Holmes has been named as the new managing director of the Lakeshore General Hospital Foundation. “We are very excited about Heather’s enthusiasm, drive and vision for the LGHF,” said board chair Bernie Marcotte. “She will be an effective leader of the Foundation and a passionate advocate for the patients, doctors and staff of the hospital. Building bridges with the community is one of her top priorities.”