November 2016 event. Mayor Beis offered his kind words, "These tremendous volunteers deserve this recognition and this beautiful and important residence has gone above and beyond to make this a very special event".

Over 110 appreciative volunteers and VIP's in attendance applauded super volunteer Ada Colomb, who has served LGH for over 43 years. "I volunteer because I love to. I never expected such an honour. Thank you so much" beamed Ms. Colomb.

A guest who has attended the event regularly over the past many years gets the final word as he offered "Congratulations to all the Lakeshore General Hospital volunteers, contributors, The Foundation and Réseau Sélection for all the work you do, the great success you continue to achieve and the community spirit and partnership which will continue to enrich the health and lives of West Island and Greater Montreal residents for many years to come".

Heather Holmes – Managing Director and Dave Cescon – Board Co-Chair of The Lakeshore General Hospital Foundation present Super Volunteer Ada Colomb an award recognizing her 43 years and counting as a Hospital Volunteer at Réseau Sélection - Le Sélection West Island Gala Luncheon.

The volunteers of The Lakeshore General Hospital were the honoured stars at a Gala luncheon arranged by The Lakeshore General Hospital Foundation proudly hosted by Réseau Sélection – Le Sélection West Island, one of more than 35 Réseau Sélection Retirement Complexes across Quebec.

The luncheon, an annual event to show appreciation to Lakeshore Hospital volunteers and key contributors is a celebration which "we all look forward to as one of our favorite and most important events of the year" says Heather Holmes – Managing Director of The Foundation. Heather went on to say "Réseau Sélection takes action to enhance the lives of aging adults and their families! We are very proud to count them amongst our dedicated group of partners and would like to applaud them for impacting local healthcare for generations to come".

Carole Ravenda and Anne-Marie Milard handle Development and Event Planning for The Foundation and they talked about how "Every year, Réseau Sélection - Le Sélection West Island graciously hosts a holiday luncheon to help recognize our volunteers, donors and partners. Thanks to their exquisite menu, outstanding service and phenomenal collaboration, we can lavishly celebrate those who make our progress possible. Thank you for your caring spirit and immense generosity"!

Lucie Laperrière, General Manager of Le Sélection West Island calls the luncheon "An extremely important event for our complex and for the Réseau Sélection group". Ms. Laperrière went on to say "We are so proud to partner with The Lakeshore General Hospital Foundation to put on this event every year. It gives us a chance to give back in our own small way to a great hospital which serves our residents and the entire West Island community with expert care and deep compassion every day".

Pierrefonds Mayor Jim Beis was one of six West Island mayors and councilors who attended the
